Confidential Disclosure of Personal Identifiers

Rules 44 and 45 of the Rules of Superintendence provide that parties and their attorneys should not include, or must redact where inclusion is necessary, certain personal identifiers in order to protect personal privacy. Sup. R. 44(H) defines personal identifiers to include “social security numbers, except for the last four digits; financial account numbers, including but not limited to debit card, charge card, and credit card numbers; [and] employer and employee identification numbers...” Personal identifiers should be omitted or redacted from all case documents submitted to the Court, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Sup. R. 45(D) prescribes use of this form to allow personal identifiers to be furnished to the Court separately as may be necessary for use as permitted by law in the performance duties required of the Court. The contents of this form will not be subject to public disclosure. Additional pages may be attached to this form as necessary.

	Name of Party or Entity to Which Omitted or Redacted Personal Identifier Applies	Complete Personal Identifier (use this column to list the personal identifiers that have been redacted from the document)	Corresponding Reference (use this column to list the reference or abbreviation that will refer to the corresponding complete personal identifier)	Location (use this column to identify the document or documents where the reference appears in place of the personal identifier)
